Primary Election Was Quietly Conducted. The Newsboys' Picnic—C. T. A. U. Encampment—Other News Notes.

The primary election in West Scranton yesterday afternoon was carried on quietly and without any particular incident. A large vote was polled in every district, the day being favorable to such a condition, and on account of the mine workers being idle the attendance at the polls was considerably increased.

During the evening the usual crowds assembled at the West Scranton branch office of The Tribune, in Jenkins' drug store, where the returns were being received and telephoned to the central office. Many party workers assembled in the Republican club rooms and computed the vote received by the various candidates.

Candidate Farr made his headquarters at his home, on North Main avenue, where telephonic communications were received by himself and his friends. The fight for the congressional nomination created the utmost interest in every polling district, and the adherents of both candidates were at work zealously during the three hours of time lining up the followers.

Newsboys' Annual Picnic.

What is now looked upon as one of the most enjoyable events of the year, the newsboys' picnic, will be held at Nay Aug park on Wednesday, July 23, and the youngsters who handle the papers in West Scranton, as well as every other section of the city, are preparing for a great day of sport.

For a number of years Newsdealer Thomas E. Price, of South Main avenue, has been in charge of the West Scranton delegation, and he will be again this year. "Tommy" is a great friend of the newsboys and he does not do things by halves. He has been appointed a member of the soliciting committee, and when he comes around and asks you for a contribution, remember it is for a picture and feeling of several hundred boys and girls. This attraction is undoubtedly the liveliest one offered at Nay Aug park during the year, and if you doubt it, just make arrangements to go with the boys that day and take the children along, all of you will enjoy it. All kinds of races and games are held, some of which afford unlimited excitement and enjoyment for young and old.

The Local Firemen.

C. T. A. U. Encampment.

The time for the regimental encampment of the various companies of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union is near at hand and the men in charge have about completed all the arrangements for the event. A meeting was held in Wilkes-Barre last Sunday and another meeting will be held there next Sunday to close up all business.

The encampment will be formally opened at Lake Lodore on Friday, July 12, and will continue until Saturday, July 26. Arrangements have been completed with the Delaware and Hudson company for the transportation of fifteen thousand to and from the lake on Sunday, July 20, when the regimental chaplain, Rev. J. V. Moylan, of North Scranton, will conduct a military mass, and the Catholic Choral Union will assist in the singing.

M. F. Kelly, of Company B, West Scranton, has been appointed sergeant major, and J. R. Kline, of Company A, Wilkes-Barre, is to be color sergeant. The new colors of the regiment have arrived. They are purple and gold, and make a very pretty effect, when the men, with their lancers, are in line.

Arrangements are also being made for the accommodation of representatives of the press during the encampment, and also for an excursion in the lake on Thursday, July 23. St. Mary's choir, of Wilkes-Barre, will participate in the rendition of the military mass.

At the meeting held last Sunday William Early, of Scranton, was appointed secretary-treasurer of the regiment, and Colonel Phillips, James Snee and Patrick Hopkins were appointed as an advisory committee to assist in the details of the work.

The young men who are interested in the encampment have been working energetically to bring about a most successful outing, and every indication

Was Sick Eight Years with Female Trouble and Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never in my life given a testimonial before, but you have done so much for me that I feel called upon to give you this unalloyed acknowledgement of the wonderful curative value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For eight years I had female trouble, falling of the womb and other complications. During that time I was more or less of an invalid and not much good for anything, until one day I found a book in my hall telling of the cures you could perform. I became interested; I bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was helped; I continued its use and in seven months was cured, and since that time I have had perfect health. Thanks, dear Mrs. Pinkham, again, for the health I now enjoy."—Mrs. JENNIE O'DONNELL, 278 East 31st St., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Arrangements Are Being Made for a Large Number of Excursions by Societies of This Side.

Nearly every society on this side is planning for a day's enjoyment, and a meeting of the committee having in charge the arrangements for the annual outing of the Scranton Athletic club, held an interesting session at the headquarters, on Alder street, last evening. The Athletics will spend July 19 at Mountain Park, and an excellent programme of events is being prepared. Those who form the committee of arrangements are: Charles Rose, Will P. Huoster, Albert Becker, Victor Nash and Peter Robling, Jr.

The Primaries.

The Republican primaries passed off very quietly yesterday, although a great deal of energetic hustling was done by friends of the rival candidates. A light vote was cast in the Twelfth ward and in several of the outlying districts, but a full normal vote was cast in the Eleventh and Nineteenth wards.

The First district of the Eleventh ward showed up well with 194 votes, while the second district also did well, showing that the workers were well organized.
